Achieving Excellence
in English with Mrs Aw

About Mrs Aw

Hi, I'm Qi Qi, but most of my students call me Mrs Aw.

I started tutoring at 17, and over the years I have taught at a private international college, written curriculum and trained teachers at an enrichment centre, and worked with students across Primary and Secondary levels.

My classes are built on one simple belief: students do better when they know exactly what to do.

That is why, over the years, I have found myself constantly creating frameworks for the parts of English that students struggle to 'see' clearly, from oral responses and situational writing to comprehension, composition and essay writing.

These frameworks are not shortcuts. They are tools that help students think clearly, write purposefully, and respond with confidence under exam conditions.

What a Lesson with Mrs Aw Looks Like

The HEART Method

At the heart of my teaching is what I call HEART Education.

H

HONOUR
the child

We start with where the child is, not where we assume they should be.

E

EQUIP with skills

Clear, practical frameworks for every skill that feels confusing.

A

ANCHOR
in fundamentals

Grammar and vocabulary taught as building blocks, not drills.

R

REFINE
through feedback

In-the-moment feedback so students know how to improve, now.

T

TEACH toward mastery

Every lesson connects to the bigger PSLE or Secondary journey.

HEART is how we build confident learners with strong skills and kind hearts.

Every class follows a clear rhythm, because structure helps students feel safe enough to learn, try, and improve.

By the end of a lesson, a child has taken one clearer step towards owning the skill.

Sherrine

Mrs Aw is an exceptional teacher. My son joined her during his PSLE year, and we saw a tremendous improvement in his grades. We are very grateful to have found her at such a crucial time. My younger child is now also under her guidance. Mrs Aw is passionate, dedicated, and well-loved by the children, making learning both effective and enjoyable.

Hui Fang

Our son is truly blessed to have Mrs Aw as his English tutor since Primary 1. From the very beginning, she made learning English both enjoyable and engaging, while maintaining a professional and well-structured approach. Under her guidance, our son has grown tremendously in confidence, reading, and writing, and was awarded Level Best in English Language in Primary 4 and 5. Beyond academics, Mrs Aw nurtures a positive attitude towards learning and inspires her students to believe in themselves. Highly recommend her to any parent looking for an exceptional English tutor. Thank you Mrs Aw!! ❤️

Jolene Chua

Absolutely outstanding and highly recommended. We've been with Mrs Aw since P1, and kid is now in S1 (2025). She's dedicated, upholds high standards, and her class schedule is highly reliable, with very few cancellations. She is also flexible with make-up lessons when needed. Lessons are always fun and effective. She genuinely cares for the kids' emotions and takes time to talk to them. Strict when necessary and consistently delivers excellent results.
